Launch of Rodeo's Pachislot Machine "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave"

(C) NP/GD/PKL (C) PC/BP

Fields Corporation (Head office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Hidetoshi Yamamoto) announces the nationwide release of Rodeo Corporation's pachislot machine "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" (model name: Ume-Matsu Paradise). Details of this release are given below.

The characters of Tatsuo Umemiya and Hiroki Matsukata, two big-name Japanese movie stars, have been teamed up in "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" to create a powerful one-two combination. "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" provides on-screen excitement and entertainment with lively dance performances and thrilling fishing scenes. The sense of playing a game, which is very popular with players, has been incorporated into "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave." The highly attractive entertainment experience of this machine promises to appeal to a wide range of players.

"Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" was developed by Rodeo, long famous for its innovative technology. The flowing contours of the stylish new "Dynamite Wave" body and the unprecedented dynamic actions of the characters will provide each player with a unique balance of an exciting gaming experience and captivating entertainment.

Popular celebrity Yuko Ogura is giving her wholehearted support in an all-out campaign to promote the launch of "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave."

Plans call for pachinko fans throughout Japan to be able to enjoy "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" in pachinko halls from the beginning of September. Sales of "Ume-Matsu Dynamite Wave" have been incorporated into the Fields Corporation business plan for the fiscal year ending March 2005.
