Fields Corporation (Head office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Hidetoshi Yamamoto) announces the nationwide release of the new Bisty Co., Ltd. pachinko machine "CR Otoko Ippiki Gaki Daisho."

The new pachinko machine features characters from the comic "Otoko Ippiki Gaki Daisho" by popular manga artist Hiroshi Motomiya. The manga, which appeared regularly in the magazine Weekly Shonen Jump for five years from 1968, was the starting point for the creation of a world inhabited by Motomiya's characters. This world has been portrayed not only in manga, but also in highly popular animated and live-action films. "CR Otoko Ippiki Gaki Daisho" is the third pachinko or pachislot machine launched by Fields Corporation based on Motomiya's works, following the enormous success of "Salaryman Kintaro" and "Ore no Sora."

"CR Otoko Ippiki Gaki Daisho" focuses on the power struggles of the main character, gang leader Mankichi Togawa, as he builds friendship and bonds of loyalty with his followers through fighting. Motomiya vividly portrays his characters' lives, and the large LCD screen faithfully and dynamically brings his world to life. The rules of the game couldn't be simpler: win the fight or lose it. Players can revel in non-stop action as the fiery characters clash in a series of powerful fight scenes rising to battle pitch during pre-jackpot performances.

Taking players into a world of head-to-head showdowns between fighting men, the new machine will appeal to a wide range of players, from pachinko enthusiasts to fans of young men's manga from days gone by.

"CR Otoko Ippiki Gaki Daisho" is scheduled to be available for enjoyment at pachinko halls throughout Japan in early July.

Sales of this machine have been incorporated into the Fields Corporation business plan for the fiscal year ending March 2007.
